PIT STOP VOLUME 2, ISSUE 5 SEPTEMBER / OCTOBER 2008

The Toilet Paper

Not Your Average Portable Restroom

If you attended "Art in the Park" on the Marietta Square Labor Day Weekend, you no doubt saw many unique and interesting sights.

In the "View It and Use It" area, five Georgia artists did a tremendous job in creating magnificent works of art on a most unusual canvas...PIT STOP Portable Restrooms!

The artists were challenged to fill the 4X4X7 (112 sq ft) expanse with their artistic creations. The results were eye catching and provided a photo op for many festival goers.

PIT STOP is featuring these units for residential events. Customers are encouraged to choose the design that best suits their theme. Whether a backyard BBQ or a child's birthday party, we have an exciting mural that is sure to impress your guests. Due to the significant time & talent expended in creating these specialty units, we are currently reserving them for residential functions only. Call today to book one of these unique one of a kind units

Special thanks Carolyn Morris with the Marietta Business Association, for the making this project a reality.
